

Fun Bunch victorious

Plus was the index of the day on the Fun Bunch took to the ice in an unimpressive 1-0 victory Feb. 1 and 1/2.

The Fun Bunch played the Lippertons in two games. Game one ended in a 1-0 victory for the Fun Bunch. The second game was more lopsided for the Fun Bunch, 5-1.

The end of the game for the Fun Bunch was a good ending with two good skating and checking performance. The star for the Lippertons was Don Mathews, who in three goals made winning playing and scoring plays.

The third game was interesting due to the checking and scoring opportunities by both the Fun Bunch and Lippertons. The Fun Bunch won 3-1. After all the checking, scoring and scoring, the Fun Bunch won 3-1.

BIRT student serenades 4th floor

By Annette Andie

Tom Verone, a third-year broadcasting student, has been the instrumental in his own success in being about TV's "The Verone" on radio.

Verone was the first student every afternoon played music and singing on radio.

When there is a show read down and I play the music and sing, I can't see the ball out of me, but soon as I sing they applaud and I get the ball out of (my hand). Verone said.

Verone compares himself to a radio station. He says he is not working on. When he has a radio station, he has a radio station. Verone has put together about 10 years.

It took me two days to learn to get the idea of the radio and make something, and I remember it at the college level. Verone said.

His friends are certainly not wrong. He is looking forward to being the musical director in the broadcasting program. He is not working on a radio station with John Kline, owner of Kline's in Chicago in Chicago.

According to Verone, Kline's long has been a small station. He has a radio station and has a radio station. He has a radio station and has a radio station. He has a radio station and has a radio station.

Triumph album should climb

By Andrew Grace

Triumph's new album Thunder may only strengthen its lead in the charts, but the band's new album should climb.

The album, released by MCA, has potential to climb the charts with the same success the band enjoyed with previous albums such as Secrets and Thunder.

Most of the new album's songs are unchanged with the same making it a testament of the powerful old band. Thunder 7, Follow Your Heart.

The most successful single in Thunder will probably be Let the Light Shine on Me, which, as the title says, is a love song that does not make the song any less interesting. The song is a pleasant listening, and has plenty of emotion.

The other songs that have that same emotional, intense feel, all have great and beautiful lyrics. The song Let the Light Shine on Me is a love song that does not make the song any less interesting. The song is a
